

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
EUREKA DIVISION

ANTHONY L. ROBINSON,
Plaintiff,

v.

ANTHONY A. LAMARQUE, et al.,
Defendants.

Case No. 02-cv-01538-NJV

ORDER RE LETTER REGARDING KOSHER DIET

Re: Dkt. No. 407

On August 31, 2010, the court entered a permanent injunction in this case which provided in part that the CDCR was "hereby immediately and permanently ordered to permit Plaintiff to participate in the CDCR's Jewish Kosher Meal Program on the same terms and conditions as kosher-observant Jewish inmates and without regard to the fact that Plaintiff is not a kosher-observant Jew." (Doc. 316, 19:10-13.) The court "retain[ed] jurisdiction of this action for all purposes, including without limitation, all proceedings involving the interpretation, enforcement, or amendment of this Order and Permanent Injunction." (Doc. 316, 19, 18-20.)

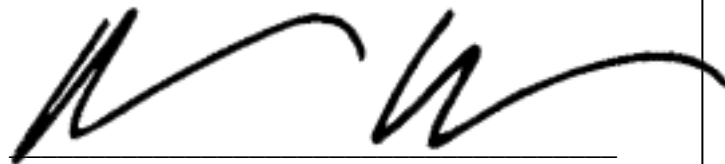

On December 12, 2016, the court received a letter from Plaintiff in which he claimed that officials at California Men's Colony were failing to provide him with his kosher diet. (Doc. 407.) On December 20, 2016, Counsel for Defendants filed a response to Plaintiff's letter, stating that on December 14, 2016, she contacted the litigation coordinator at California Men's Colony and confirmed receipt of this court's order entering a permanent injunction. She further states that on December 14, 2016, Men's Colony Litigation Coordinator H. Cervantes contacted the supervising officer on Plaintiff's yard and confirmed that Plaintiff is receiving kosher meals.

In light of this information received from Defense Counsel, the court finds that the request for relief contained in Plaintiff's letter is moot. The matter is resolved and that there no basis for action by the court.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
